THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As this “most unusual” year draws to a close, I reflect on how much we all had to adapt to changes in our daily lives. It has definitely been a difficult year, however I congratulate you all on what you have done to help our Republican candidates.

Your contribution of time and effort paid off! Many of our members were in the front lines to help flip the 48th Congressional seat to help Michelle Steel become one of the 15 new Republicans going to DC. LNRWF will continue to have members holding elected office.

Our own Laurie Davies was successful in being elected to the 73rd Assembly seat, and Sandy Rains and Rishi Paul Sharma will be members of the LN City Council along with Kelly Jennings. Other candidates were not as successful, but we will continue to support Brian Maryott if he chooses to run again for the 49th Congressional seat; Greg Rath for the 45th; and John Moorlach for any future seat he may choose. Young Kim was successful in her bid for Congress, and Janet Nguyen was elected to the 72nd Assembly seat and Steven Choi will retain his seat in the Assembly. We can be proud of these Republican wins!

We were all hoping the stress of the election would be behind us by now, but President Trump is still fighting for us. Actor John Voight stated on Newsmax that, “We must fight like it’s the last fight on earth!” It is imperative that we continue to support our President in this fight for our freedom. We cannot give up, transparency is needed for American’s to gain confidence in our country...so there will be litigation! Please join us on Wednesday, November 18, 2020 at San Juan Hills Golf Club at our final meeting where you can congratulate our incoming 2021 board members and thank our 2020 board for all the work they did on behalf of LNRWF this year. Although it was a “most unusual” year, I thank our outgoing board and all members who stepped up to ensure that LNRWF remains a leading club in support of Republican ideals, and remains a place where our members can meet and share ideas with like-minded women. It has been my pleasure to be your President!

Let’s all Pray for President Trump!
